

I am opposed to the attempts by the banking industry and others to weaken Wisconsin's no call list. I believe in a right to privacy that allows me to choose whether I wish to receive junk phone calls which can occur at any time of the day. Wisconsin's no call law has been a blessing to limit these intrusions. The efforts by the banking industry and others to make it easier for them to waste my time what amounts to unwanted advertising should be denied.